HMH GO Math! Accelerated 7, Advanced 1, Advanced 2, and Alegbra 1: Analyze Connect Explore Back to School Update – October 2017

This document outlines important updates for October 2017. Customers may have experienced limitations with content availability via the Personal Math Trainer powered by Knewton™ (PMT). Here you will find what's available now along with new capabilities being developed with estimated timelines and resolutions to help make the teaching and learning experience the best it can be in the following areas:

- Functionality/Content Availability

Functionality & Content Availability

As previously communicated, PMT underwent several important content and functionality enhancements throughout the summer. PMT enhancements are now complete. Access to content including assessment is available via the eBook link, Search & Browse function, and Interactive Student and Teacher Editions.
